

Lunaria:

Lunaria is an association started in 1992 carrying out research, information, training and action on the social economy, immigration, globalisation, youth programmes and voluntary service. Our activities include youth projects: information and participation, intercultural understanding, promotion of international voluntary service for all, with activities for the European voluntary service: youth and senior volunteers exchanges, International workcamps and solidarity activities, campaigns, building coalitions of civil society groups for alternative priorities in public expenditure, expanding the third sector, North-South solidarity, integration of immigrants; research, with projects on employment and work in the social economy, ethical finance, immigrants, globalisation; services, advising non profit organizations on law, fiscal and financial opportunities; training, with courses on the social economy, managing non profit organizations and understanding globalization. The purpose of our work is to bring together understanding and action; social rights and voluntary activities; the local and the global. Common language used in the camps: English. Insurance: Lunaria provides insurance to all the volunteers.